

Olde Mill

golf

Quietly located just off the Blue Ridge Parkway and only minutes from I-77 on U.S. Highway 58, Olde Mill Golf Resort is a meticulously designed resort at Groundhog Mountain. Inspired by the natural unspoiled beauty of the rolling mountain terrain, Olde Mill Resort is committed to a level of excellence that works in harmony with its surroundings. The result is an elegant, yet relaxed approach carried through in each detail of this unique mountain resort. Designed in the early seventies by renowned golf course architect Ellis Maples, Olde Mill features tree-lined fairways, sparkling white sand traps and bunkers amid the crystal blue mountain lakes and streams cascading through the entire course. There are 175 lush green acres of spectacular views from high elevations to target areas below and from hilltop to hilltop. A large putting green and practice range round out Olde Mill's great golfing facilities.

For those who want more than golf, Olde Mill features deluxe accommodations, fine dining, indoor pool and fitness center, jacuzzi and tennis courts. Trout fishing in mountain streams, walks along the Blue Ridge Parkway and the New River Trail, craft and outlet shopping and a myriad of other activities combine to make Olde Mill a great place to spend the day, a week-end getaway or longer. Once you experience Olde Mill Golf Resort's unique atmosphere, you'll return again and again creating your own lasting memories.

Olde Mill golf

2258 Stone Mountain Road
Laurel Fork, Virginia 24352
(800) 753-5005
or (540) 398-2211
www.oldemill.net